So the House refused to assent to the said amendment.

Mr. Graves then moved to amend the said bill by adding at the end of the first section the following:

“Provided, That the Treasurer of the Western Shore, may and he is hereby authorised to receive from said purchasers for any bonds issued for the service of said company, and which may now constitute a part of the State’s sinking fund, an equivalent of other bonds of the State of the same value as to the time of redemption and rate of interest.”

Which was read.

On the question being put,

Will the House assent to the said amendment?

It was determined in the affirmative.

Mr. Sutton moved that the House do now adjourn;

Determined in the negative.

The question then recurred on the passage of the said bill,
And on being put,

On motion of Mr. Springer,

The yeas and nays were required and appeared as follows:—
